

Contact: France Lee
Tel: 781-856-4559
Email: writerfrancelee@yahoo.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DEBUT NOVEL, THE MONTH OF REMEMBER- A COUPLE BELIEVE THEIR DEAD SON IS A GHOST IN THEIR OWN HOME

On the verge of divorce because of the death of their six year old son, Tim and Virginia Lee can not endure the pain and decide to go their separate ways. But mysterious events occur, which make them believe that their deceased son is still in their house as a ghost. Below is an excerpt of an incident when they meet the ghost while a lamp is going on and off like a strobe:

“...Virginia slowly approached the apparition(of the small boy).

‘Honey, wait,’ I said. But she ignored my plea and continued walking. Whether she heard me or not, I didn’t know. She was riveted to the form of the small boy as if she were mesmerized, drawn by some invisible force.

‘Stop’ I said to her, but she continued.

I felt I had to do something for her safety. I went after her and tried to stop her. She was about four feet from the boy when I reached her, and suddenly the ghost vanished, but the strobe effect continued...”

It is a very rare occurrence when someone finds just the right person to share his or her life with. You can pay millions and still find no one. The vast majority of us spend our lives alone, or go from partner to partner, or settle for someone because there's no one else.

But from time to time, Destiny comes along and handpicks a few couples like flowers for a bride's bouquet and makes their love last beyond a lifetime. Like so many couples who believe they are the ones chosen by Destiny, Tim and Virginia Lee are no different until they find themselves on the verge of divorce because of the death of their only six year old son, Ben. Under the burden of their inconsolable grief, they can no longer bear the pain of each other's presence.

But strange, inexplicable things start happening in their house, and Tim and Virginia come to believe that their son may still be in their home as a ghost. As supernatural events unfold through the course of a month in eerie and sometimes comedic ways, such as objects moving by themselves, voices coming from empty rooms, and dreamlike visions, the couple are reminded of their son’s behavior and the activities he enjoyed while he was alive – all of which suggest that Ben may still be with them as a ghost. The ramifications of this supernatural presence have the power to heal or devastate them, and the couple are both frightened and hopeful at the possibilities that lay ahead...

The Month of Remember delves into the world of spirits and proposes the prospect of life that continues beyond the physical life. The novel is about loss which is universal, but it is also about hope in the midst of irreversible tragedy.

This Novel is available for purchase only at www.Lulu.com for $ 9.95.(200 pages)

If you would like more information about this novel, or to schedule an interview with France Lee, please email the author at writerfrancelee@yahoo.com